

Courtesy of John Graber

MUSEUM ACTIVITY

Directions: With a partner, match the following activities with their museum display. Complete the activity using the information in the display. HAVE FUN!

Diorama:

Carefully observe the activities of these Ancestral Puebloans. How are the community members helping each other?

Facing the diorama, look right.

Oil Painting:

Tell what advice you think the parents are giving to the child.

Group A

Do You Know the Time?

Why is it important to know about the people who lived here long ago?

Courtesy of WNPA

The Canyon As a Place to Live:

List three plants that live in the canyon and name a use for each one.

People of the Canyon:

Why did people first come to Walnut Canyon? Would you choose to live here? Why or why not?

Life on the Ledges:

Men's Jobs

---

---

---

Women's Jobs

---

---

---

Courtesy of Microsoft Clipart

Sketch one of the pottery designs you like.

Hunting:

Who did the hunting and what animals were hunted?

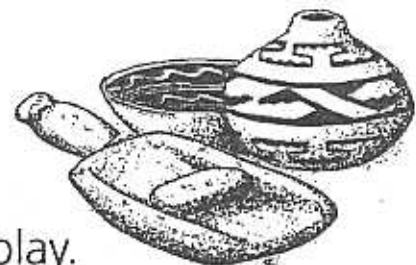

Courtesy of Microsoft Clipart

Patterns of Trade:

Name one item that was exported by the following cultures. Use the map colors to help you.

Prescott-_____ Sinagua-_____

Cohonina-_____ Hohokam-_____

Courtesy of WNPA

A Comparison:

Complete this chart after studying the display.

	Anglo Saxon (European)	Pueblo Indians
Language
Houses
Clothing
Farming
Tools

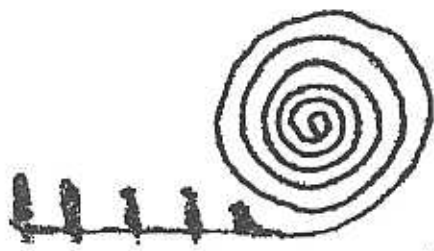

Courtesy of John Graber

Modern Indians of North America:

What ancient skills and arts do modern American Indians still practice?

Using what you have learned, think about possible reasons the Ancestral Puebloans would leave Walnut Canyon.

Hopi symbol meaning travel
Courtesy of WNPA

Look Around the Visitor Center:

Find the Guest Register. Find two people that are not from Arizona and tell where they are from. See if you can find a person from a foreign country.

Money Box (Donations):

What do you think the Park Service should do with the money people donate?

What would Walnut Canyon look like if it were not protected as a national monument?

Looking into Walnut Canyon

Courtesy of John Graber